Stonewall

Stonewall, April 16.- My, my, when we arose last Saturday morning everything was so pretty. The snow looked like Christmas was back again.

Our hartfelt sympathy goes out to the Caldwell family in the loss of a loved one, Mr. Tom Caldwell. He will be greatly missed by his home folks and friends. A good man has gone from this earth to dwell in the land not made with hands.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Matthews, III, of Orange, spent the week-end with her father, Mr. J. O. Davidson and other home folks.

We extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Parks Jennings, who observed their 40th wedding anniversary on April 10. We hope for this fine couple many, many more happy years together.

Mrs. Herbert Matthews Jr. and Miss Joe Matthews, of Orange spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. John Alvis.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stephenson, Jr. and two girls, Janet and Cynthia, of Norfolk spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Chick and her sister, Mrs. Henry Beard and her family.

Other guests in the Chick home on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Drinkard, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Drinkard, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beard and son, Lawrence, and Mrs. C. D. Carson. Mr. Tye Cobb Drinkard and his mother visited the same home on Friday.

Rev. Aaron Smith preached at Bethel Church on Sunday morning. He was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Moore.

We want to congratulate the members of Bethel Church. They have just painted their church, both inside and out, and it looks so pretty. They always give their best to their Master's house.

The W. S. C. S. of Bethel Church will meet in the home of Mrs. E. J. Goodman on Wednesday afternoon of this week. A good attendance is expected.

The Rev. and Mrs. Colie Rock and three boys visited Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Chick on last Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinson Russell and two children, Mark and Bonnie Lynn, of Richmond spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Thomas.

Sorry to hear that Mrs. J. H. Beard is not feeling so well. Her two sisters, Mrs. Sadie Stinnette and Mrs. G. T. Wilmer, of Roanoke are spending this week with her. Also, Mrs. Lewis Martin, of Appomattox is there. We wish her a speedy get well.

HORSE DRAGS BOY TO DEATH

Houston, Texas.- Charles William Horton, 14, and a playmate, were visiting a ranch near Houston, and Horton managed to throw a loop around the neck of a horse. The loose end of the lasso tangled around one of the boy's wrists and the cavorting horse dragged him around a pasture. His head hit the tongue of a horse trailer and he died of a skull fracture.

Local Soldier on Baseball Team in Germany

Mrs. Flora Stanley has handed us a clipping showing pictures of a recent baseball game in Germany, in which her son-in-law, Jerry George, of Appomattox was a star. George was a member of the American ball team, The Spookets, which played a German baseball team from Mannsheim. He was pictured crossing home plate after hitting a home run over left-field fence in the first game of a double-header. The Americans won both games.

Mrs. Carr Has Plans For May 5 Event Here in Final Stage

Mrs. F. F. Carr, chairman for the May 5 Appomattox County Day being sponsored at Old Appomattox Court House by the local Jamestown Festival Year Committee, announced today that Circle 3 of the W. S. C. S. of Memorial Methodist Church, would serve lunch and refreshments on that date, in the McLean House area.

Mrs. Carr further advises that final details of the day's activities will be announced in next week's issue. The day will feature a county-wide religious service, outdoors, at 11:45 A. M. at the McLean House, with Dr. Twyman Williams bringing the message.

Firearms Exhibit

Malcolm Booker has been made chairman of a special project for Appomattox County Day at the Old Appomattox Court House on Sunday, May 5.

Mr. Booker will present a display of Civil War Weapons and Firearms. This display will be set up in the Old County Jail building at the Old Court House. Admission will be free.

Anyone having Civil War muskets or pistols, sabers, swords, or other relics, and willing to loan them for exhibit on this one day, is urged to contact Mr. Booker at once. He can be reached at his place of business on Route 60, near Bent Creek, or by mail to Route 3, Appomattox.

Mr. Booker has a valuable personal collection of Civil War relics and his collection has frequently been exhibited elsewhere. He has a fine assortment of muskets, side-arms, etc. It is considered that this exhibit will be one of the features of the May 5 event at the Old Court House.

Confederate Units

So much was contributed to the success of the recent April 9 event at Old Appomattox Court House by the presence of a modern "Confederate Soldier" in full gear, that efforts are being made to have this feature repeated Sunday, May 5, when Appomattox County Day will be observed at the Old Court House.

Mayor Richard D. Robinson is working on this phase of the planning for May 5.

There are eleven (11) modern Confederate Companies in the State of Virginia. Mayor Robinson hopes to establish contact with each of these eleven companies, to suggest that they have one or more from each company here, in full gear, to serve as an Honor Guard May 5 at the McLean House.

These companies participate in frequent "skirmishes" and use actual Confederate muskets for their "shooting matches."

Considerable interest has been shown in the possibility of organizing a Confederate Company here. Several Lynchburg citizens have indicated a desire to join such a company. Mayor Robinson and Malcolm Booker have contacted the Adjutant of the Virginia Confederate Companies in regards to having a delegation here on May 5.

The principal event of the Appomattox County Day on Sunday, May 5, will be a county-wide religious service, outdoors, at the McLean House, at 11:45 A. M.

During the afternoon, there will be a rapid succession of interesting events, including a Flower Show, an Art Exhibit, a Civil War Relic exhibit, a Military Retreat.

REVIVAL AT ROCKS

.... Rev. Leroy Richardson

Revival services wil ibegin on Monday, April 29, at 8:00 P. M. at the Rocks Baptist Church, and will continue through Sunday night, May 5.

The visiting minister will be the Rev. Leroy P. Richardson, of Lexington, Va. At the present time he is Student Director at Virginia Military Institute and Washington and Lee University.

The public is cordially invited to attend all the services.

Special Selective Service Examination

A special Selective Service College Qualification Test will be held on Thursday, May 16, 1957, for those students, who for reasons beyond their control, were unable to take the regularly scheduled tests on November 15, 1956 and April 18, 1957, Lt. General Lewis B. Hershey, Director of Selective Service announced today.

General Hershey stated that applications for the May 16, 1957 test must be postmarked not later than midnight May 6, 1957.

The special test will be administered by Science Research Associates, Inc., of Chicago which has established approximately 1,000 testing centers at colleges and universities throughout the United States and in Alaska, the Canal Zone, Hawaii and Puerto Rico.

In order to be eligible to apply for the special test to be given on May 16, 1957, a student need not have applied for one of the previous tests.

General Hershey stated that applicants for the special test should request assistance in filling out their application cards from the local board clerks.
